

GEN104 Religious Cultism. Attention is given to such cults as Christian Science, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormonism, Rastafarianism, Seventh Day Adventism, the Unification Church, Pocomania (Spiritualism), the New Age Movement and Satanism. These groups are examined in terms of history and doctrine, with comparisons made in both areas to Scripture and alternate interpretations of history.

Ministerial Studies The Church and Her Ministry

- MIN101 Preaching and Interpretation. A course that combines basic hermeneutics and sermon writing. A series of representative Scriptures are analyzed in terms of fundamental hermeneutical principles, after which attention is given to the proper exposition of the text. Sermon preparation and delivery are also emphasized.
- MIN102 Pastoral Counseling. An introduction to pastoral counseling with members of the local congregation, employing basic principles and processes of sound psychological therapy. (3 credits)
- MIN103 Evangelism and Church Growth. This course explores the role, meaning, motives, and methods of evangelism. Opportunities for evangelism are stressed. There will also be an analysis of those factors which have been found to be the keys to a growing congregation.
- MIN104 Christian Education in the Church. An overview of the nature and role of education in the local church. Primary emphasis is given to seeing Christian Education as involving all the activities that take place in the Body of Christ. There will also be attention given to the minister's role and involvement in the educational efforts of the local church. (3 credits)
- MIN105 Ministerial Internship. (Senior students only) A look at principles and methods of successful administration procedures in the total program of the local church. Special attention is given to the minister's relationship to worship, ordinances, evangelism, stewardship, and pastoral work. Ways to appropriately integrate these American principles into Jamaican culture will be discussed. (Note: This course is conducted at a local church in the U.S.A. under the direct supervision of the Evangelist.) (3 credits)
